RIB RECIPE REMINDER

C'mon Tickle Our Ribs

We realize there's no RULE or some obscure LAW, or even a mysterious yet incredible large & looming man in a black suit on hire to fit you with CEMENT SHOES but we'd really love to try some more rib recipes!

We thought the big red dot in our last newsletter was all we needed! But we're okay with gentle reminders as well!

The recipes are coming in and we are all loosening our belts and looking forward to trying your special recipe TOO!

And..... that is all for this month's newsletter - we take our ribs very seriously, dontcha know?
